

SHOPPING

DOWNTOWN TUPELO

Downtown Tupelo offers a large variety of shops and boutiques for everyone. From unique, one-of-a-kind specialty stores to the corner department store that has been in business for over 100 years, Downtown Tupelo is a “must” on a list of shopping destinations. Locally owned and operated, our downtown businesses offer a shopping experience that everyone will remember and return to often. Among the great finds are eclectic gifts, antiques, designer clothing and unique artwork.

BARNES CROSSING

The Mall at Barnes Crossing district delivers an all-in-one place for shoppers to peruse items or take the family for some quality-time fun. A super regional mall andstrip centers in the surrounding area provide over 1.5 million square feet of retailspace that is still growing large anchor stores include Belk, Barnes & Noble, Dick’s Sporting Goods, Home Goods, Best Buy, Old Navy, Sam’s Club, Walmart, and JC Penney. More than 90 specialty shops, a variety of restaurants, a 600-seat food court, the CinemarkMovies 8, and the Malco Cinema 10 complete the collection making the Barnes Crossing District a shopping hot spot.

MIDTOWN

Tupelo’s Midtown District offers a variety of locally-owned businesses nestled in an established shopping destination off of Main Street and Crosstown. Shoppers will delight in gifts and full-service florals, wedding attire, and jewelry in addition to clothing boutiques, interior design, and furnishings, outstanding antiques, and health, beauty and fitness options including everything for the golfer. Midtown District is also home to a full-service pharmacy, printer, a complex of medical and professional services, and a bank.

Downtown Tupelo